

Looping news.

August 2016

THE FOLLOWING VENUES IN CENTRAL VIRGINIA HAVE HEARING LOOPS!

Westminster Canterbury (9 small and large meeting rooms have been looped by Hearing Technologies, Inc. of Virginia Beach).

University Village - Multi-purpose meeting room.

The Miller Center for Public Affairs, UVA - main forum room.

First United Methodist Church, Charlottesville, VA

First Presbyterian Church, Charlottesville, VA

Holy Comforter Catholic Church, Charlottesville, VA

St. Thomas Aquinas Church (one section), Charlottesville, VA

Church of the Incarnation (two sections), Charlottesville, VA

Immanuel Lutheran Church, Charlottesville, VA

St. John's Catholic Church, Waynesboro, VA

Muddy Creek Baptist Church, Powhatan, VA

Drakes Branch Baptist Church, Drakes Branch, VA

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Charlottesville, VA

Westminster Presbyterian Church, Charlottesville, VA

The Rotunda, University of Virginia

Meadows Presbyterian Church, Charlottesville, VA

Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, Charlottesville, VA

Other installations:

Evolution Hearing, Dr. Kristin Koch, Charlottesville, VA - a TV loop pad in the waiting room.

Rivanna Hearing Aid Center, William Murphy, Charlottesville, VA - looped office.

Central Park Hearing Aid Center, Freda White and Kim Sorrell, Fredericksburg, VA - TV loop in the waiting room.

LoopFinder is a free app available for smartphones that lists loop installations throughout the country.

ALDLocator.com is a website that lists nationwide venues with FM, Infrared, and Loop systems.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, CONTACT LARRY HERBERT AT 434 879-2692 OR LAWRENCE.HERBERT@GMAIL.COM. PLEASE NOTE THAT I AM NOT CURRENTLY DOING LARGE AREA INSTALLATIONS MYSELF, BUT I CONSULT WITH VENUES AND REFER THEM TO SEVERAL COMPANIES IN VIRGINIA WHO DO LOOPING.